Dear Sarah:

Much has happened here which has prevented me from answering your letter about the S. E. Conference.

I have talked to Caroline Heriot. She will do her part and, I am sure, that Pat will.

Both Peggy Harper and I will assist in any way we can. We will have a new person with us at L.S.U. whom we intend to introduce to S. E. Chapter. More I cannot say at this time.

I got a tentative program from Bill Crawford today which I have to treat as confidential.

At least it gives the outline. There is only one speaker on it so far, for the banquet, the President of AALS, Lockhart.

Sunday, August 24 - Registration 4-8:30 P.M.
Evening reception
Monday, August 25 - 9:30 Panel
Noon conference lunch
2:15 Panel
6:00 Reception
Tuesday, August 26 - 10:20-12:30 Panel
Lunch and afternoon free
6:30 Reception
8:00 Banquet
Adjournment

If our new building is presentable, we shall be glad for you to inspect it. A trip to Baton Rouge involves driving time, 4 hours on a four lane highway and we could make a detour on the River Road to see a few of the plantation homes with a lunch or dinner on the way.

Depending on the number of law librarians present, we could drive in private cars.

After studying the outline, you may have some ideas of your own.

We could have our "private" dinner in a near by Restaurant which is very good and would avoid transportation problems. It will be very hot and humid and I doubt that anybody would like to be without air conditioning.

I'll keep you posted as I hear more about the panels.

Sincerely,

Kate
